The Elddis Avante has become one of the most popular Elddis models with caravanners wanting a vast range of layouts, and a decent price and specification.

The Avante has seen changes over its history, some possibly not as good as many hoped, but over recent years, it's a line-up that impresses in both build and style.

The 462 from 2008 is an end-washroom two-berth offering a large front lounge area, with a side dresser and kitchen opposite.

It also provides plenty of storage for a couple taking a long tour, with acres of overhead lockers and lots of other storage capacity, especially in the washroom at the rear.

The specification includes a BPW chassis, alloy wheels, an oven and a microwave, plus a fridge and blown-air heating.

So the Avante Club range offers a good package, especially after its major makeover in 2008.
